Dear Michael,

This letter is to confirm that Raglan Community Radio is excited to partner and sponsor the Ruapuke Roots Festival's workshops for the 2018 event.

We see it as a great community initiative and are pleased to be able to promote it via our Radio Station, assist at the event and air the workshops via our Community Radio at a later date.

Good luck with the workshops and the festival itself.

Regards

Aaron Mooar

To whoever it may concern

I, Miles Buckingham, have been approached by Michael Robins, on behalf of the Ruapuke Roots Festival with a request to host a number of "artist in conversation" events at the festival, which I am delighted to do.

I'm currently a radio programmer and announcer at Radioactive in Wellington, & was the producer for a weekly radio documentary, Uncharted between 1998 and 2011, broadcast on what was at the time the B-Net. This involved interviewing an artist or band each week. I still regularly interview musicians for Radioactive, generally live on air. For the last four years I have also been a "Cultural Ambassador" on RNZ Nights with Bryan Crump, delving into the history of Jamaican music.

Having attended the previous Ruapuke Roots Festival, I have absolute faith in the quality & success of the 2018 event, & firmly believe an artists in conversation component will only enhance what is already one of the most enjoyable boutique festivals there is.

If you require any further information, please feel free to contact me on (022) 130 5767 or miles@radioactive.fm

regards
Miles Buckingham
