- an employee of the Waikato District Council who is elected as mayor or councillor must resign from their position as an employee of the Waikato District Council before taking up their position. This does not apply if an employee is elected to a community board. An employee will need to alert their manager of the intention to stand for office prior to any nomination being lodged.

Candidate profile statement

Every candidate may provide the electoral officer with a candidate profile statement with their nomination. This statement must not exceed 150 words and can contain information about the candidate, their qualifications and skills applicable to the position for which they are standing and their policies/intentions if elected to office.

The candidate profile statement must be true and accurate and the electoral officer is not required to verify or investigate any information included in this statement.

The profile may include a recent passport-size colour photograph.

The candidate profile statement and colour photo are required to be submitted in hardcopy, not electronically (except where information in another language is provided).

Candidate profile statements will be printed in plain text, without formatting ie:

- no bullet points;
- no bold or underlining;
- no italics;
- no quote marks.

These will be included with the voting document sent to each elector by the electoral officer, as well as being placed on the council's website. Note that any spelling or grammatical errors will not be corrected, and candidates are therefore reminded to check their candidate profile statement prior to submitting their nomination.

The candidate profile statement may be submitted in both English and Māori (maximum 150 words in either language) but the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other.

Should all or part of a candidate profile statement be provided in a language other than English or Māori, it must not exceed 150 words in total. Any language other than English or Māori is required to be provided in an electronic graphic file. As an example, a candidate could submit a candidate profile statement consisting of say 50 words in English, 50 words in Samoan and 50 words in Tongan. The total number of words cannot exceed 150.

If submitting an electronic graphic file containing other languages, the specifications (from the printer) are: all translations must be supplied as a single image. If there is more than one language translated, then these are to be all supplied together in a single image.

The image file to be supplied must meet the following criteria:

- PNG format;
- black and white;
- 600 dpi;
- maximum file size 400kB;
- the image being 1300 pixels high and 2000 pixels wide.

Level 26, HSBC Tower, 188 Quay Street, Auckland
1010
Phone: 0508 872675
Email: info@pactranz.com
Web: www.pactranz.com

Candidates are also required to submit with their candidate profile statement the following information:

Section 61 of the Local Electoral Act 2001 states the following:

  - must be provided to the electoral officer together with the nomination paper and other things referred to in section 55(2)(f); and
  - must be confined to information concerning the candidate (including any group or organisation with which the candidate claims under section 55(4) to be affiliated, or their status as an independent candidate, and the candidate's contact details), and the candidate's policies and intentions if elected to office; and
  - must state whether or not the candidate's principal place of residence, being the address in respect of which the candidate is registered as a parliamentary elector, is in the local government area for which the candidate seeks election (for example, either "My principal place of residence is in the Lambton Ward" or "My principal place of residence is not in the Lambton Ward"); and
  - if the candidate is seeking election to any other positions in elections to which this Act applies (under section 7), must specify each position and state that the candidate is seeking to be elected to the positions; and
  - must comply with any prescribed requirements; and
  - may include a recent photograph of the candidate alone.
- (2A) The information required by subsection (2)(ca) and (cb) does not count for the purposes of the word limit under subsection (2)(a).
- (3) If a candidate profile statement is submitted in Māori and English, the information contained in each language must be substantially consistent with the information contained in the other language.
- (4) If the electoral officer is not satisfied that a candidate profile statement complies with subsection (2) or, if applicable, subsection (3), the electoral officer must, as soon as practicable, return the statement to the candidate and must—

- a. specify the concerns of the electoral officer and the reasons for those concerns; and
  - b. unless the candidate profile statement does not comply with subsection (2)(b), specify a period, which must not be less than 3 days from the date of return of the statement, during which the candidate may submit an amended candidate profile statement to the electoral officer.
- (5) A candidate is to be treated as having failed to provide a candidate profile statement, if subsection (4)(b) applies to the candidate and the candidate—
- a. fails to submit an amended candidate profile statement within the period specified in subsection (4)(b); or
  - b. submits an amended candidate profile statement that, in the opinion of the electoral officer, does not comply with subsection (2) or, if applicable, subsection (3).
- (6) An electoral officer -
- a. is not required to verify or investigate any information included in a candidate profile statement;
  - b. may include, in or with any candidate profile statement that is published, displayed, or distributed, any disclaimer concerning the accuracy of the information contained in the statement that the electoral officer considers appropriate;
  - c. is not liable in respect of -
    - i. any statement contained in or omitted from the candidate profile statement or the work of a translator prudently selected by the electoral officer; or the exercise of the powers and functions conferred on the electoral officer by this section.

Completion of nomination paper

Each nomination paper must have the consent of the candidate and be nominated by two electors whose names appear on the electoral roll for the district or subdivision of the district (e.g. if a person wishes to stand for election to a specific ward, then that person must be nominated by two electors from the specific ward).

If a candidate is unable to sign the nomination paper (e.g. absent overseas), a letter of consent signed by the candidate is acceptable to attach to the nomination paper.

If a candidate is commonly known in the community by a slightly different name (e.g. Edward Smith is commonly known as Ted Smith) and has been known by this name for at least the last six months (to the satisfaction of the electoral officer), the commonly known name may appear on the voting document.

Once lodged, a nomination paper is available for public inspection at the electoral office. Candidate details not identified as confidential (e.g. mobile phone number) are made available to the media, placed on websites etc.

Affiliation

The nomination paper provides for a candidate to have an affiliation. An affiliation is described in section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 as 'an endorsement by any organisation or group (whether incorporated or unincorporated).'

Individual candidates, not part of an organisation or group, may wish to nominate their affiliation as 'Independent' or leave as blank (if left blank, nothing will show alongside the name on the voting document).

A candidate claiming a specific affiliation must supply with their nomination paper an authority to adopt the affiliation for the organisation or group concerned (i.e. letter of consent to use the affiliation from the organisation or group). This is a safety measure to avoid any illegal adoption of affiliations.

Affiliations that will not be accepted are ones:

- that might cause offence or
- are likely to confuse or mislead electors or
- are elections slogans rather than the name of an organisation or group.

Should an affiliation be rejected for any of the above reasons, section 57(3) of the Local Electoral Act 2001 sets out a process for the electoral officer and candidate to follow. Should agreement not be reached, no affiliation will appear on voting documents.

Affiliations are not able to be 'pre-registered' with the electoral officer, before a nomination is lodged.

Each nomination paper lodged requires a deposit of $200 (inclusive of GST). This is refunded if the candidate polls greater than 25% of the lowest successful candidate (for FPP elections).

Please do not leave lodging your nomination to the last minute.

Nominations can be returned by mail, but should these be received by the electoral officer or electoral official after the close of nominations, the nomination is invalid.

Cancellation of nomination

A candidate is able to withdraw their nomination up until the close of nominations (noon, Friday 12 August 2022). After the close of nominations, a candidate is not able to withdraw their nomination.

[Section 69, Local Electoral Act 2001].

However, should a candidate become incapacitated after the close of nominations but before the close of voting, application may be made for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate.

'Incapacitated' means that a candidate, because they are suffering from a serious illness or has sustained a serious injury, would be unlikely to be capable of performing the functions and duties of office if elected to office. [Section 69(7) Local Electoral Act 2001].

An application for the cancellation of the nomination of a candidate must be made to the electoral officer by submitting a prescribed form (available from the electoral office) together with a medical certificate.

Election material cannot contain:

- any untrue statement defamatory of any candidate (e.g. under the Defamation Act 1992);
- an imitation voting document which has the names of the candidates with any direction or indication as to the candidate a person should vote for, or in any way contains such direction or indication likely to influence the voter.

Voting documents should not be collected from electors by candidates or their assistants. Each elector should post or deliver their own voting document to the electoral officer. This also applies to rest homes and hospitals - voting documents should not be collected from elderly or infirm electors by candidates or their assistants.

Use of council resources

Candidates are not permitted to use Council resources for campaigning purposes. Council resources include, but are not limited to, Council's logo, crest or branding, website, Facebook page, Twitter account, any other forms of social media, tablets, computers, ipads, email, mobile phones, faxes, stationery, photocopiers, printers, stamps, cars, meeting rooms and venues (except those available for public hire). This applies to either sitting members, Council staff or other candidates in any context that could reasonably be construed as campaigning for elections.

Social media

Social media can be a useful tool for candidates for campaigning purposes and electioneering. Candidates should however be aware of any Council social media guidelines for candidates and should comply with these at all times.

Council's social media channels are Council resources and must remain politically neutral at all times. Council will promote elections and the importance of voting but will not associate these posts with any candidates.

Council social media accounts will not follow any candidates. This may result in your account being unfollowed.

Council's social media accounts are not permitted to be used as a communications channel by anyone (candidates or members of the public) for promotion, electioneering or campaigning. This also applies to all social media accounts owned by Council-controlled organisations.

Candidates should not post on Council's social media channels, nor should they comment on, share or otherwise use Council social media channels for electioneering. You may not rate, review, check-in or tag the Council's social media channels in your own posts or comments.

Council's social media accounts are constantly monitored, and any campaign related or electioneering content, (including posts related to nominations and candidacy), will be removed immediately.

Candidates should be aware that election advertising, using any media, including on social media, must identify the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced and the physical address (not a PO Box) of the person under whose authority they have been produced [Section 113, Local Electoral Act 2001]. This may be details of the candidate or their agent, and may be included on a profile picture, or within the bio section of a page.

For example: 'All content/images contained on this social media page/channel are authorised by [name], [physical address]'.

Offences

Candidates should be aware that it is an offence (carrying a fine of up to $5,000, if convicted) to interfere in any way with an elector with the intention of influencing or advising that elector as to how they should vote. Candidates and their assistants should be mindful of this particularly if campaigning occurs in rest homes or hospitals.

Election offences are detailed for your information on page 45 of this handbook. Please refer to them for your own protection.

Election advertising

Election advertising, using any media, must show an authorisation statement. This statement must include:

- the true name of the person under whose authority they have been produced; and
- the physical address (not a PO Box) of the person whose authority they have been produced. [Section 113, Local Electoral Act].

This includes election advertising on signs, in newspapers, on flyers and posters, on a vehicle and on election websites.

Relevant criteria as contained in the Local Electoral Act 2001 are:

113 Advertisements for candidates

- (2) A person may publish or cause or permit to be published an advertisement of the kind described in subsection (1) if -

  - b. the advertisement contains a statement setting out -
    - i. the true name of the person or persons for whom or at whose direction it is published and the address of their residence or place of business; and
    - ii. the true name of the organisation or body that has endorsed the publication of the advertisement and the address of the place of business of that organisation or body.
- (5) This section does not restrict the publication of any news or comments relating to an election in a newspaper or other periodical, or on the Internet, or in any other medium of electronic communication accessible by the public, or in a radio or television broadcast made by a broadcaster within the meaning of section 2 of the Broadcasting Act 1989.
- (6) A person who willfully contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Key message

Candidates need to be aware to keep a record of all donations received and expenses incurred in their election campaign. Election expenditure limits will apply, these depending on the population size of the area of the election the candidate is standing for.

Electoral expenses

Candidates should be aware that candidate campaign expenditure limits are applicable. This means a limit has been placed on how much a candidate may spend on their campaign, and this includes donations and joint campaigning. The maximum amount spent must not exceed the limits set out below where the election covers a population range as detailed:

Local government area population	Expenditure limit
up to 4,999	$3,500
5,000-9,999	$7,000
10,000-19,999	$14,000
20,000-39,999	$20,000
40,000-59,999	$30,000
60,000-79,999	$40,000
80,000-99,999	$50,000
100,000-149,999	$55,000
150,000-249,999	$60,000
250,000 -1,000,000	$70,000
1,000,000 or more	$100,000*

* Plus 50 cents for each elector

[NOTE: Expenditure limits are inclusive of GST].

Electoral expenses are defined as relating to electoral activity which can comprise advertising, broadcasting or communicating material to the public (electronically or otherwise). These electoral expenses are generally funded by the candidate and are not reimbursable from the organisation the candidate is standing for.

If a candidate is standing for more than one position (e.g. mayor and council) then the higher limit applies (not both combined).

The expenditure limits for councillors and community board members are:

General Wards	Population	Expenditure limit
Awaroa-Maramarua	5,650	$7,000
Huntly	6,210	$7,000
Newcastle-Ngāruawāhia	13,450	$14,000
Tamahere-Woodlands	13,350	$14,000
Tuakau-Pōkeno	11,850	$14,000
Waerenga-Whitikahu	6,500	$7,000
Western Districts	5,070	$7,000
Whāingaroa	5,700	$7,000
TOTAL GENERAL POPULATION	67,780
Māori Wards
Tai Raro Takiwaa	7,980	$7,000
Tai Runga Takiwaa	7,170	$7,000
TOTAL MAAORI POPULATION	15,150
TOTAL POPULATION	82,930

Community Boards & Subdivisions	Population	Expenditure limit
Huntly		$7,000
Ngāruawāhia		$7,000
Rural-Port Waikato	4,550	$3,500
North Subdivision	2,460	$3,500
South Subdivision	2,090	$3,500
Raglan	5,360	$7,000
Taupiri		$3,500
Tuakau		$3,500

The estimated expenditure limit for the mayor is $50,000 (including GST), based on a 82,930 population (as at 30 June 2021).

The period for which campaign expenditure limits apply is three months before election day (i.e. 8 July 2022 to 8 October 2022). However legislation further specifies that all expenses incurred before the three month period for campaign expenditure and used during the three month period, must be fairly apportioned and included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Where an electoral expense relates to more than one candidate, an equitable apportionment between candidates is required.

Nomination deposits, voluntary labour and election sign framework are not electoral expenses and therefore should not be included in the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses.

Electoral donations

a. Candidate donations

A candidate donation is a donation of money, goods or services that is made for use in the candidate's campaign.

Candidate donations, and contributions to donations, of more than $1,500 (inc GST) are required to be declared in the candidate return of donations and expenses. A series of donations made by one person that adds up to more than $1,500 must also be declared.

A candidate donation includes:

- where a candidate is provided with goods or services free of charge that have a reasonable market value greater than $300;
- where a candidate is provided with discounted goods or services and the reasonable market value of the goods or services is greater than $300, the difference between the contract or agreed price and the reasonable market value of those goods and services is a donation;
- where a candidate sells over-valued goods or services the difference between the price paid and the reasonable market value is a donation, for example a fundraising auction or dinner.

The following are not deemed a donation:

- volunteer labour;
- goods or services provided free of charge to a candidate, or to any person on the candidate's behalf that have a reasonable market value of $300 or less; or
- money provided by the candidate for their own campaign.

If a person or organisation gives or pays for goods or services that would otherwise be candidate election expenses, the reasonable market value of those items, whatever their value, should be recorded as an election expense. If the reasonable market value of the items exceeds $300 it should also be recorded as a donation.

b. Donations made up of contributions

Donations to candidates can be made up of pooled funds contributed by more than one person (referred to as donations funded from contributions). These types of donations include, for example, campaign donations made through a trust, or where there is a fundraising collection for a candidate's campaign.

The total proceeds of a collection are treated as a donation. The person who collects the money will normally be the donor. The individuals who contribute to the collection are contributors.

If a candidate donation, other than an anonymous donation, is made up of contributions, the transmitter or donor must tell the candidate:

- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of individual contributions of $1,500 or less; and

- in the case of individual contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

If the candidate knows, or has reasonable grounds to believe, that the donor has failed to supply information about contributions, the whole donation must be returned to the donor.

c. Transmitted donations

A donation can be made either directly by the donor to the candidate or indirectly by a transmitter who transmits a donation to the candidate on someone else's behalf, for example via a lawyer's trust fund. Any person who receives a candidate donation on the candidate's behalf must transmit it to the candidate within 10 working days.

When transmitting a donation, the transmitter must tell the candidate:

- that the donation is being transmitted on behalf of a donor;
- the name and address of the donor;
- whether the donation is made up of contributions;
- the total amount of contributions of $1,500 or less; and
- in the case of contributions greater than $1,500, the name, address, and contribution of each contributor.

Where a transmitter does not disclose the name and address of the donor, the donation must be treated as an anonymous donation.

d. Anonymous donations

Candidates are not permitted to retain anonymous donations exceeding $1,500. An anonymous donation is a donation made in such a way that the candidate who receives the donation does not know the identity of the donor and could not, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to know the identity of the donor.

If a candidate receives an anonymous donation greater than $1,500, they may retain $1,500 of that donation. The balance of the donation must, within 20 working days of receipt, be paid to the electoral officer for payment into the general fund of the local authority.

Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses

A Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses form (a copy of this is located at the rear of this handbook) is required to be supplied to the electoral officer within 55 days after the official declaration (by 13 April 2023). This can be supplied to the electoral officer within 76 days after the official declaration if a candidate is overseas when successful candidates are declared elected.

The Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses must set out:

- the details of every electoral donation received by the candidate that, either on its own or when aggregated with all other donations made by or on behalf of the same donor for use in the same campaign, exceeds $1,500 in sum or value; and
- the details in respect of every anonymous electoral donation received by the candidate that exceeds $1,500; and
- details of the candidate's electoral expenses.

The details of every electoral donation exceeding $1,500 are:

- the name of the donor; and
- the address of the donor; and
- the amount of the donation or in the case of aggregated donations, the total amount of the donations; and

- the date the donation was received or, in the case of aggregated donations, the date that each donation was received.

The details of every anonymous donation exceeding $1,500 are:

- the date the donation was received; and
- the amount of the donation; and
- the amount paid to the electoral officer and the date the payment was made.

With respect to electoral expenses, the return must set out separately the name and description of every person or body of persons to whom or which any sum was paid, and the reason for which it was paid. Sums paid in excess of $200 (GST inclusive) must be vouched by an invoice or a bill and a receipt.

Candidates are advised to retain all invoices and receipts relating to electoral expenses should these be required in the event of a challenge. They should not be submitted with the return.

Once the Return of Electoral Donations and Expenses forms have been received by the electoral officer they become public documents and are to be kept for a public inspection period of seven years. During this period, the returns:

- are placed on council's website;
- can be inspected by any person;
- copies can be made available if requested.

This is a requirement under section 112F of the Local Electoral Act 2001.

Key message

Council has a policy around election signs and candidates should familiarise themselves with this. Election signs are permitted two months before election day (from 17 December 2022) but must be removed by midnight 16 February 2023.

The following policy can be enforced by Part 6 (control of electoral signage) of council's Public Places Bylaw 2016.

Part 6: Control of electoral signage

Waikato District Council Public Places Bylaw 2016:

35 - Restrictions applying to electoral advertising

- 35.1 No signs advertising candidates for an election or referendum shall exceed 3m<sup>2</sup> in area.
- 35.2 No sign for an election or referendum shall be placed on any reserve or public place except those specially approved by the council.
- 35.3 No temporary sign for an election or a referendum shall be erected earlier than two months before polling day and shall be removed the day before polling day.
- 35.4 No sign shall be placed or be allowed to remain where in the opinion of an authorised officer (or New Zealand Land Transport Authority) that sign would:
- Obstruct or be likely to obstruct the view of any corner, bend, intersection, vehicle crossing, traffic sign or traffic signal;
  - Distract unduly or be likely to distract unduly the attention of road users;
  - Resemble or likely to be confused with any traffic sign or signal;
  - Give rise to excessive levels of glare, use flashing or revolving lights or use reflective material that may interfere with a road users vision;

- Constitute or be likely to constitute in any way a danger to road users.

35.5 Nothing in this bylaw purports to authorise any matters which are prohibited or otherwise controlled by legislation governing an election or referendum.

State highway electioneering signs

Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency electioneering signs adjacent to state highways:

Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency (NZTA), as the road controlling authority for state highways throughout New Zealand, seeks the co-operation of your council in controlling the location of electioneering signs adjacent to those highways.

The NZTA board continues to be concerned with the potential for driver distraction arising from signs particularly those adjacent to intersections and along higher speed arterial routes carrying high traffic volumes. From New Zealand and overseas experience, it is clear that there is a direct correlation between indiscriminate signing and increased accident rates on roads, and the NZTA is keen to ensure that electioneering signing for the forthcoming elections does not contribute in any way to the road toll on New Zealand roads.

With this in mind there are some fundamental considerations we would ask you to make when erecting electioneering signs adjacent to state highways. These are:

- In rural areas the signs should be located off the highway reserve. You will, of course, need to consult with property owners and the appropriate local authority to gain any necessary consents. In exceptional situations only, the NZTA may permit erection of signs within the road reserve but this must not be done without the written approval of the NZTA.

- In urban areas (where speed limits are 70 km/h or less) you should seek the local authority's approval for erection within or adjoining the road reserve.
- Signs must not be reflectorised, illuminated or erected in such a location that will create an obvious conflict with existing road signs. Signs must not imitate or be of a form similar to any traffic signs. (This is a legal requirement in terms of the Land Transport Act 2003.)
- The location of signs must give consideration to visibility and other traffic safety aspects.
- Signs will not be permitted on or adjacent to motorways.
- Signs erected on rural state highways in a location or manner likely to cause distraction or danger to road users may be removed by the NZTA or its agents without prior notice. Where a sign is removed by the NZTA, the party will then be advised of the action taken and that the sign may be redeemed for a fee of $50 to cover NZTA costs.
- For the above noted safety reasons, vehicle mounted signs situated on State highways are also discouraged by the NZTA.
- Specific details relating to these requirements are covered in the Traffic Control Devices Manual part 3: Advertising Signs, which is accessible on Waka Kotahi NZ Transport Agency's website www.nzta.govt.nz

- are 18 years of age or over; and
- have at some time resided continuously in New Zealand for one year or longer; and

Residents who pay rates on a property in another local authority area or community board may be entitled to enrol on the ratepayer electoral roll for that local authority area or community board.

Companies, businesses, trusts, corporations or societies which are ratepayers of a property in a local authority district or community board may also nominate an elector to vote on their behalf, provided any such elector resides outside the district or community board where the property is situated.

Partners, joint tenants and tenants in common who collectively pay rates on a property in a local authority district or community board may also nominate one of the group who is an elector to vote on their behalf, provided any such elector resides outside or community board the district or community board where the property is situated.

Enrolment forms can be found on councils website: www.waikatodistrict.govt.nz/elections or by phoning the electoral office (0800 922 822).

Those eligible to vote are:

- all residents enrolled on the Parliamentary electoral roll within the Waikato District Council area; and
- all non-resident ratepayers enrolled on the ratepayer electoral roll.

Roll data requests

Information contained on the electoral roll is not available from the electoral office in an electronic form, but candidates or political parties may request an electronic listing of resident electors from the Electoral Commission (provided the criteria of section 114 of the Electoral Act 1993 are met). An application form is required to be completed, and these are available upon request from the Electoral Commission.

Note however that elector details for the area a candidate is standing for only will be provided, and this data is unable to be passed on to any third-party and must be used for election purposes.

With regard to a listing of non-resident ratepayer electors, a candidate may purchase mailing labels and/or postal address lists from the electoral office.

Candidates or candidate scrutineers may request, before the close of voting, a listing of names of persons from whom voting documents have been returned. Such a request can be supplied in either hardcopy or electronic copy, and a reasonable charge will be made for this. [Section 68 (6) Local Electoral Act 2001].

A standard letter for the appointment of a scrutineer is located at the end of this handbook.

Elected members have a significant and varied role in local government, both as a representative of those living in their communities and also as a decision-maker for key issues facing the whole district.

After the elections, the newly appointed council will decide on the remuneration for councillors from a funding pool set by the independent Remuneration Authority. The remuneration for the mayor and community board members is separately determined by the authority.

Remuneration

Remuneration for elected members is set by the independent Remuneration Authority and differs according to the member's position and responsibilities. The remuneration for the mayor and community board members (including the chairperson of a board), effective from after the elections, will be set by the authority in June/July 2022.

The newly elected council will decide on the remuneration for councillors in October/November 2022 from a 'funding pool' set by the authority. This 'pool' will cover all councillor remuneration, including any positions of additional responsibility (e.g. deputy mayor or chairperson of a council committee).

Elected members may also be entitled to claim allowances, including for mileage, travel time and to meet their communication costs. These allowances are also set by the authority, the application of which is contained in the council's Reimbursement for Elected Members Policy.

The Remuneration Authority's website has further information on elected member remuneration which can be found at www.remauthority.govt.nz/local-government

Requirements and time commitment

Depending on the role (mayor, deputy mayor, committee chair, councillor, community board chair or community board member) the time commitment for an elected member can be significant.

Elected members are required to prepare for and attend meetings, read Council information, attend workshops and informal meetings, conduct site visits and respond to constituent enquiries.

Candidates need to be aware of the impact that can occur on families as a result of being elected as a mayor, councillor or community board member. This can range from needing to take time off work to attend meetings, to attending night meetings, receiving telephone calls at various times of the day and night, or being asked to address issues when shopping at the supermarket, watching sport, attending church, or even walking the dog.

Some members of the community see elected representatives as being 24-hour, 7-day-a-week, full-time, fully-contactable people. This may often depend on the issue currently before the council or a community board but generally most citizen contact with elected representatives is done at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

Key message

All members leave office and come into office on the day after the declaration of results is publicly notified.

Term of membership

All members come into office for the Waikato District Council on the day after the day the candidate is declared to be elected (i.e. the day after the first public notice declaring the result is made).

[Section 115, Local Electoral Act 2001]

All members leave office for the Waikato District Council when the members elected at the next election come into office.

[Section 116, Local Electoral Act 2001]

If at the close of nominations, the number of candidates is less than the number of vacancies, the unfilled vacancies become extraordinary vacancies and are treated as occurring on polling day (for the By-Election, this is Friday 17 February 2023).

[Section 64, Local Electoral Act 2001]

A member is disqualified from holding office in a local authority under the following provisions:

"Disqualification of members

- (1) A person's office as a member of a local authority is vacated if the person, while holding office as a member of the local authority, -

    - b. is convicted of an offence punishable by a term of imprisonment of 2 years or more.

- [Clause 1, Schedule 7, Local Government Act 2002]

Community board membership - Mematanga i te poari hapori

Key message

Community boards act as advocates for their communities and are an important link to Council.

Legislation

Relevant legislation relating to membership of community boards is found in the Local Electoral Act 2001.

Appointed members to a community board must be appointed by Council from the elected councillors representing the ward in which the community is situated [Section 19F, Local Electoral Act 2001].

A person elected as a councillor and a community board member within the same ward/community district is deemed to be elected as a councillor and a community board member but is then deemed to have vacated the office as a community board member, and the next highest polling community board candidate is elected. (If there is no highest polling unsuccessful candidate, in this instance, an extraordinary vacancy occurs and a by-election is required) [Sections 88A, 88B, Local Electoral Act 2001].

If a person is elected as a councillor and a community board member (the community being in a different ward to the ward containing the community), that person is considered an elected member to both.

In the Waikato District Council area, four to six members are elected to each of the six community boards.

Each community board may have up to half the total number of members appointed, but those appointed must be elected councillors representing the ward the community board is situated in. For example, the Ngāruawāhia Community Board could have a total of eight members - six being elected members and two appointed members (one being a Newcastle-Ngāruawāhia Ward councillor and one being the Tai Runga Takiwaa Maaori Ward councillor).

Waikato District Council

Waikato District Council comprises the mayor and 13 elected councillors.

These people meet as Waikato District Council but to assist in the efficient running of business, the council can establish committees, subcommittees and other subordinate decision-making bodies to conduct its business under delegation where it is empowered to do so.

The mayor can set up committees, and appoint chairpersons to those committees [s41A(3) Local Government Act 2002]. However, committees and other decision-making bodies are usually established by the council following the elections, along with determining the membership and delegations of those committees and bodies.

Community boards

There are six community boards covering the Waikato District Council area.

Each community board is separate from the council, but can only operate in terms of the delegations granted to it by the council.

Traditionally Waikato District Council has granted a number of delegations to community boards, including the allocation of a small local improvements budget, and discretionary funding for community grants.

Legislation

The Local Government Act 2002 is the main piece of legislation that grants powers, duties and functions to the council and community boards.

There are a significant number of other pieces of legislation that impact on the roles and duties of elected representatives in Waikato District, such as:

- the Resource Management Act 1991 for hearing and deciding on resource consents and creating a District Plan;
- the Local Authorities (Members' Interests) Act 1968, which sets out rules governing such things as members' pecuniary interests; and
- the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987, which provides procedures for council meetings and processing requests for council information.

Elected members also have responsibilities under the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015, which is covered separately in this handbook.

Post-election processes

No elected member can act until they have made their statutory declaration.

The declaration requires that each member declares "I, AB, declare that I will faithfully and impartially, and according to the best of my skill and judgement, execute and perform, in the best interests of Waikato District (or for community boards, the name of the community) the powers, authorities, and duties vested in, or imposed upon, me as (mayor or a member) of Waikato District Council (or name of the community board) by virtue of the Local Government Act 2002, the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987 or any other Act."

This declaration is for the mayor, councillors and community board members.

Once members have made their statutory declaration and been sworn in, a series of briefings, training and induction processes will take place to assist the new elected members in settling into their new duties as quickly and efficiently as possible.

Specific skill training is offered, particularly in the area of decision-making and chairing of meetings, if required, and in accordance with Council policy.

Appointment to outside organisations

The council appoints both councillors and community board members to a wide range of external organisations:

- as a result of statutory requirements e.g. trust boards;
- by long standing arrangement with various organisations;
- by invitation from various bodies and organisations.

Examples of these will be the WEL Energy Trust, Waikato Coalfields Museum Trust and Creative Communities New Zealand.

Management structure

Staff are headed by the chief executive who is directly responsible to, and appointed by, the council. The council only employs the chief executive. All other staff are employed by the chief executive.

The key role of staff is to implement decisions of the council, to provide advice to the council, its committees, and community boards; to ensure that all functions duties and powers are properly performed, and to ensure the effective, efficient and economic management of the activities of the council and community boards are undertaken.

In Waikato District the executive leadership team is led by the chief executive. The executive leadership team is responsible for reporting to council, its committees and managing the various groups of the organisation.

Key message

---

All elected members of the Waikato District Council are required to comply with the duties and obligations of the Health and Safety at Work Act 2015.

Health and Safety at Work Act 2015

Under the legislation an officer is someone who holds a position which allows them to exercise significant influence over the whole of council. At Waikato District Council, elected members and the chief executive (and possibly others) are 'Officers'. The boards of council-controlled organisations and their chief executives are also officers.

As a PCBU (persons conducting a business or undertaking), council holds the primary duty to ensure people's safety. An officer's responsibility is to exercise due diligence to ensure that council complies with its duties and obligations under the Health and Safety at Work Act – similar to the responsibility councillors and local boards have to exercise due diligence over Council's financial matters.

An officer's duty is important because leadership contributes to the council's Zero Harm culture and elected members need to have an understanding of what is required to manage Council's risks.

Officers can rely on information provided to them by staff and experts so long as that reliance is reasonable. However, elected members and the chief executive must test and assess the advice provided to them to ensure they are confident their decisions have sufficiently considered health and safety factors. Officers must demonstrate that they have carefully considered health and safety.

There are six key aspects of officer due diligence. The legislation requires officers take reasonable steps to:

- (1) Acquire and keep up to date with health and safety knowledge and health and safety matters for Council.
- (2) Understand Council's operations and the associated hazards and risks.
- (3) Ensure Council has appropriate resourcing and processes to eliminate or minimise risks to health and safety.
- (4) Ensure Council has appropriate processes for receiving and considering information regarding incidents, hazards, and risks and for responding in a timely way to that information.
- (5) Ensure Council has, and implements, processes for complying with any duty or obligation.
- (6) Verify the provision and use of resources and processes through reviews and audits.

Liability

Whilst officers do not have the same primary duty as the PCBU to directly ensure health and safety they must exercise due diligence to ensure that the PCBU is meeting its duties.

Elected members acting in their capacity as elected members (as distinguished from elected members acting in a governance role for another entity) are excluded from liability for the most serious offences under the new Act. However they may still be liable under some of the other requirements in the legislation – for example in some circumstances WorkSafe NZ could still serve an improvement notice on them.
