Schedule 30.1 Historic Heritage Items¹Assessment of Historic Buildings and Structures*Heritage Assessment Criteria

The heritage significance and the value of the historic heritage has been assessed based on evaluation against the following heritage qualities:

Archaeological Significance:

- The potential of the building, structure and setting to define or expand the knowledge of earlier human occupation, activities or events
- The potential for the building, structure and setting to provide evidence to address archaeological research
- The building, structure and setting is registered by Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga, or recorded by the New Zealand Archaeological Association Site Recording Scheme

Architectural Significance

- The style of the building or structure is representative of a significant development period in the Waikato District and associated with a significant activity (e.g. institutional, industrial, commercial or transportation)
- The building or structure has distinctive or special attributes of an aesthetic or functional nature (e.g. materials, detailing, functional layout, landmark status or symbolic value)
- The building or structure uses unique or uncommon building materials or demonstrates an innovative method of construction, or is an early example of the use of particular building technique.
- The building or structure's architect, designer, engineer or builder as a notable practitioner or made a significant contribution to Waikato District.

Cultural Significance

- The building, structure and setting is important as a focus of spiritual, political, national or other cultural sentiment
- The building, structure and setting is a context for community identity or sense of place and provides evidence of cultural or historical continuity.
- The building, structure and setting has symbolic or commemorative significance to people who use or have used it, or to the descendants of such people. The interpretative capacity of the place or area and its potential to increase the understanding or past lifestyles or events.

Historic Significance

- The building or structure has a direct association with, or relationship to a person, group, institution, event, or activity that is of historical significance to Waikato District.
- The building or structure is associated with broad patterns of local or national history, including development and settlement patterns, early or important transportation routes, social or economic trends and activities.

¹ [559.216], [559.217], [559.218] and [697.307]

Scientific Significance

- The potential for the building, structure and setting to contribute information about an historic figure, event, phase or activity.
- The degree to which the building, structure and setting contributes information and the importance of the data involved, its rarity, quality or representativeness.

Technical Significance

- The building or structure shows a high degree of creative or technical achievement at a particular time or is associated with scientific or technical innovations or achievements.

Ranking of Historic Heritage Items

The heritage assessment undertaken acknowledged the importance of the built heritage items in an international, national, regional and local context. The determination of the significance and the level of significance(A or B ranking) to determine the ranking of a built heritage item was primarily determined by the item's significance to the Waikato District.

A Ranking: historic buildings and structures with a 'high level' of significant heritage value important to the understanding of Waikato District's development and identity.

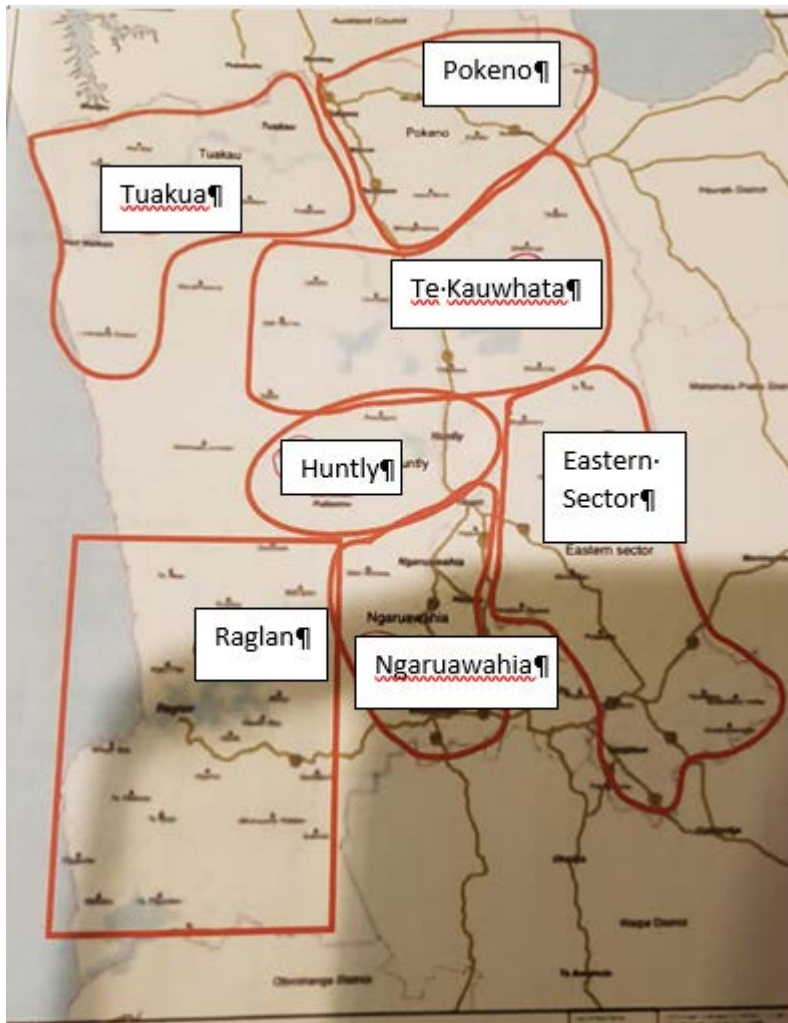

B Ranking: historic buildings and structures with significant heritage value that contributes to the understandings of Waikato District's development and identity

Schedule 30.1 Historic Heritage Items

Advice Notes:

- The all exteriors of the scheduled heritage item is protected.
- The extent of setting of the scheduled heritage item has been identified on the Heritage Record to protect the surroundings of the item and is important to ensure the context and heritage value of the scheduled item are not eroded.
- Reference needs to be made to the assessment reports prepared for each individual heritage item to determine their heritage values (Waikato District Council Historic Heritage Item Record Form.
